

Looking at Art

What you think about art is just as important as what someone else might tell you it means.
Use these questions to explore your thoughts about a piece of art.

What do you see? What do you think is happening in the work of art?

What makes you say that? Does the piece remind you of anything?

What else do you notice? What more can you find?

LOOK IT OVER!